
WASHINGTON WORLD

August 17, 1964

Vol. 4, No. 24

WATERGATE area, bordering on the Potomac River in Washington, will soon see the building of high-rise apartment houses—and the new John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts.