Agency Appointed

Henry J. Kaufman & Associates, Washington, has been appointed advertising and public relations agency for Riverview Realty Corp., sales and leasing firm for the $66-million Watergate project.

The Watergate site is a 10-acre triangle in the Foggy Bottom area, where a complex of high-rise buildings is planned. The project consists of three buildings containing about 1000 cooperative apartments, an office building and a residential hotel. First of the Watergate buildings, Watergate East, is expected to be occupied next summer.
