

Jewelry Store Robbed of Cash, Gems

Jewelers, 801 A st. ne., of $2343 and rings at more than $1000 by two men wielding and a knife, police said.

E. Spitzer, 39, credit of the store, and a Andrew Ward, 23, told they were preparing to store at 9 a.m. when walked up behind

took $25 from Spitzer's before ordering him to safe in the rear of police said.

Store Loses

Armed Holdup

er of Sheriff Liquor rted to police yes-he was robbed of a man who held in his pocket as if a gun.

Silverman, 40, told man entered his behind the counter while he made his getaway with the loot — half cash and half checks.

Landscaper for JFK

Is Beaten and Robbed

Boris Timchenko, the landscape architect who designed gardens for President Kennedy and Mamie Eisenhower, was robbed of $50 and various credit cards yesterday by three young men who beat him in the lobby of his apartment building, police said.

Timchenko, 66, said he was taking mail from his box in the lobby of 2456 20th st. nw. about 2:55 p.m. when the trio entered, attacked him, grabbed his wallet and ran out.

He was released from George Washington University Hospital after treatment for bruises and abrasions.

Found in Street, Man Dies Later

Aubrey G. Chappell, 40, died yesterday about three hours after he was found unconscious at 1:40 a.m. in the crosswalk of Connecticut Avenue nw. at R Street, police said.

Chappell, who had no fixed address and was identified by his fingerprints, may have been hit by a car, police said, but a ruling on the cause of death will await an autopsy today.

HATE